This 12th Annual Juried Exhibition is being dedicated to Carol Ann Rose. Carol Ann passed away February 26, 2007. She was always willing to help and served on the board as Vice President and 4th President. She chaired two juried shows and started the newsletter as a tool to communicate with our members. She set up classes and workshops with well know artists. Carol Ann opened her gallery as a means to showcase our member's art as well as her own artwork. She taught classes out of her gallery and has helped many budding artists including some who later joined our league and have become very involved themselves. She always had a smile and she will be missed.

OUR JUROR

Nancy Pryor Grills moved to Columbia from Kingsport, TN where she was co-owner of the Woodside Gallery and a past President of of the Kingsport Fine Arts Center and the Kingsport Art Guild and Renaissance Center. She is a Signature member of the Tennessee Watercolor Society. Nancy has juried numerous exhibits in both Tennessee and Virginia. She has written two books and is working on a third. She teaches watercolor privately and at the Still Hopes Center.

Juror's Statement

I was very pleased to serve as the Juror for the 2007 Crooked Creek Art League Member Show. It gave me the opportunity to view the art of many talented painters whose works I had not known before.

The works are diverse and interesting with numerous styles and levels of technical skill represented. All of the works submitted had merit so it was not an easy task to select those who won awards.

Many years ago, I had to make a decision when entering shows . . . . accepted or rejected, winning or losing, could not be the focus . . . rather the focus had to be . . . how can I improve my own talent and make it grow to my own personal level of Best In Show. Sometimes, not winning is the best thing that can happen to us . . if . . your focus becomes a challenge to nurture your talent to a new level of maternity.

Congratulations to all who chose to exhibit in this year's Member Show . . . job well done!
