Dear Fellow Crooked Creek Art League Members:

Thank everyone for their participation in the 27th Annual Crooked Creek Show and Sale Reception. The entries keep getting better and better. The jurors are challenged to determine the best. Without such great artists, the show would not be successful.

Lisa Alberghini and Kay Stallings, thank you for your hard work and dedication orchestrating our show. The success is based upon your endeavors and bringing it all together for a perfect reception and show. I cannot thank you enough.

Lainie McWilliams, thank you for stepping up and taking care of the reception food! You were remarkable. We appreciate your hard work and planning. We also appreciate Columbia International for allowing us to borrow the tablecloths. Taking all the tablecloths home and washing and getting them back in place was a larger task than you needed to take on by yourself. Greatly appreciated though.

Sandra Oliver and Jimma Causey, thank you for the beautiful, thoughtful and definitely perfect centerpieces for our tables. You had a great idea that was so fitting with the past Best in Shows being used so effectively.

Barbara Teusink, your hard work and dedication to the program and many other areas that you volunteered your precious time was admirable. I know the program took many hours putting together. You are such an asset to our chairs with your computer skills. I probably don't know just how many things you were involved in for our show. Thank you.

Sonya Diimmler, I don't think I turned around any where prior to the show that you were not busy working and helping put things together from the take in to the setting up for the reception. However, your most important asset was finding sponsors and advertising to allow us to have a successful show. You are a real gem! Thank you.

I am sure that I am forgetting someone. I am truly sorry if I missed thanking you individually. Just know that I am very appreciative of all the work and members of the Crooked Creek Art League.

Our April meeting is around the corner. Our speaker information has been posted and emailed to all members... Kelly Pelfrey, "Should I Post?" She would like you to email questions for her to answer during her presentation. Please email questions to Debra Kelly at dkellyart@sc.rr.com. Don't forget that we will be in person in April. Food and socializing begin at 5:00 p.m. and our meeting will begin at 6:00 p.m. sharp. Those that Zoom will be able to join us around 5:45 p.m. If something happens that you cannot join, call or text to let us know.

Now for the Congratulations to all our award winners. First let me say that all of you are winners! I wish we could have an award for everyone. Every juror has his/her preferences; therefore, we all did not receive an award.

Congratulations to Dale Bishop for her Best in Show! I don't know if you have won a Best in Show before or not. I know you are thrilled. I admire your work. This piece has so much detail and thought-provoking images. Well deserved!!!

I look forward to seeing everyone in April. Congratulations to all our winners! We are truly a blessed group.

Respectfully,

Kay Fox

President
