Juror's Comments

"Light inspires me. I paint the moment that a subject or scene transcends the ordinary through it's effect. Often, it is the light I am painting rather than the subject itself."

Our Juror

Carolyn Epperly, NWS, WHS received her BA from the University of South Carolina and her degree in Commercial Art at Holland College, Charlottetown, PEI, Canada. She has also attended various international workshops. USC Associate Juror

JohnHenry Tecklenburg was born in Charleston, SC and from an early age, he filled his days with sports, drawing and painting. His first art teacher, Diane Tennyson, left an impression on him that he should pursue a career as an artist. He studied at The International School of Painting, Drawing and Sculpture in Umbria, Italy, The Rhode Island School of Design, Chautauqua Institution of Painting in Chautauqua, NY, the Art Institute of Chicago and now The University of South Carolina. JohnHenry's favorite medium is oil although he is familiar with printmaking, watercolor and acrylics. His interest lies in the observational painting of figures and landscapes and how space occupies them and the creation of a truthful experience of how we see and feel the world around us.

Crooked Creek Art League expresses its sincere gratitude to the following individuals and organizations for their generous support of our artists.
