Juror's Note

Thank you for the honor of jurying the First Fall Exhibition for the Crooked Creek Art League. I enjoyed looking at each and every piece. My judging is always to look at each work of art for certain criterion. The most points are awarded for the story or emotional impact, then compositional elements and finally technique. Congratulations to the award winners. The choices were tough so if you didn't win, remember; today it is just one person's opinion. I encourage you to keep painting and most of all, love the process!
